THE HOBBIT

THE BATTLE OF THE FIVE ARMIES

United® Cutlery has meticulously crafted officially licensed prop replicas of a variety of weapons from The Hobbit Trilogy. New to this series are detailed reproduction props from The Hobbit: The Battle of the Five Armies™, the third film in The Hobbit Trilogy. Each collectible is precisely replicated from the actual film props created by world-renowned physical effects house Weta Workshop. In bringing these weapons of Middle-earth into the real world, close attention to detail was a top priority, and no effort was spared to make these replicas as accurate and visually stunning as possible. Each meticulously crafted collectible includes a display plaque and a certificate of authenticity.

Handle features leather grip embossed with intricate scaled feather pattern

BARD the Bowman

The Sword of Bard the Bowman™

Bard the Bowman™ was the heir of Girion™, the last Lord of Dale, and one of the most proficient archers of men. He wielded Girion's ancient sword and was keeper of the last Black Arrow of Dale, which he used to slay the great dragon Smaug™ during the attack on Lake-town. He then fought alongside the Elves and Dwarves against the armies of Azog™ in the Battle of the Five Armies. He rallied his forces to lead the main defense against the orcs and trolls in the ruins of ancient Dale, bravely wielding his sword in victory over the enemy.

The Sword of Bard the Bowman™ features a hilt bearing design motifs of ancient Dale, with a pommel in the shape of twin bird heads and a leather wrapped grip embossed with an overlapping scaled feather pattern. The blade is adorned with engraved grooves and a rune etching.

Staff of Gandalf the Grey

The staff of Gandalf the Grey is a symbol of his status as an 'Istari', or Wizard. It was once owned by Radagast the Brown, crafted from an upturned, twisted sapling once crowned with twig and root-like protrusions, but now all broken and worn down. As well as being Gandalf's trusted walking stick and a fighting weapon when in need, it holds a deep magical power. Radagast's rune mark is carved into the side and the crown features a grooved shape that once held Radagast's blue crystal, now serving as a place for Gandalf to store his pipe.

- Pushed into the side of the staff is a nail spike which Gandalf uses as a tobacco tamper, and once used to scratch a rune into the door of Bilbo Baggins home in Hobbiton.
- Removable pipe and spike replicas
- Individually serial numbered
- Polyresin construction

Illuminated Staff of Gandalf™ the Grey

This special edition of the Staff of the Wizard Gandalf™ the Grey features an illuminated crown that glows just like the one wielded by Sir Ian McKellen in the motion picture The Hobbit: The Desolation of Smaug™. Cradled by the crown's spindly, twisting faux-wood skeleton, a high intensity LED gleams brilliantly from behind a striking translucent lattice. Broken by the asymmetrical framework of the lattice, the vivid white light scatters into beaming, multidirectional rays – glinting and sparkling as the staff is turned. The light reciprocates by bathing the crystalline lattice in a warm golden glow. Activated by a hidden button, the 100-lumen LED boasts a 50,000-hour lifespan and shines for an impressive 20 hours on just a pair of AA batteries (not included).

Glamdring™, The Sword of Gandalf™ the Grey

Glamdring™ represents Elven swordcraft at its height – a weapon truly befitting an Elvenking. Long lost in a troll hoard, the Wizard Gandalf™ recovered this ancient sword and claimed it as his own. He wielded Glamdring™ throughout the Quest of Erebor, using it against the Goblins of the Misty Mountains. It remained his primary weapon until the end of his days in Middle-earth. The name Glamdring™ means "foe-hammer" in the age-old Elvish tongue and engraved into the cross guard are ancient Elvish runes that translate to "Turgon, King of Gondolin, wields, has, and holds the sword Glamdring, Foe of Morgoth's realm, Hammer of the Orcs."

THE LORD OF THE RINGS™

With more than 100 million copies sold in 40 languages worldwide, millions have grown up with the classic epic "The Lord of the Rings™," long considered to be one of the greatest fantasy stories ever shared. Produced by New Line Cinema, this film trilogy chronicles the struggles between good and evil for possession of the magical Ring, making it one of the most popular and beloved film trilogies of the 20th century. The legendary weapons from this epic story are instantly recognizable to millions of collectors and fans around the world. United® Cutlery, industry leader in fine movie reproductions, has meticulously recreated each of these breathtaking props using only the finest grade materials and craftsmanship.

Anduril™, Sword of Aragorn™

Anduril™ was forged from the shards of the sword Narsil™, and then carried by Aragorn™, the heir to the throne of Gondor. Aragorn™ wielded Anduril™ against the forces of Sauron™ and assumed the name of Elessar™ once the final victory was won. As regal and bold as Elessar™ himself, this breathtaking replica is wholly faithful to the original movie prop, from the gleaming 24K gold-plated pommel and crossguard accents to the delicate runic blade inscription. The flawlessly etched runes exude an air of alluring mysticism and translate to, "I am Anduril™, who was Narsil™, the sword of Elendil™. Let the thralls of Mordor™ flee me".

Sting™, Sword of Frodo Baggins™

Sting™ was carried by Frodo Baggins™ on his quest through Middle-earth in The Lord of the Rings™ trilogy. Forged by elven smiths in the First Age, the blade glows blue when orcs or Saruman's fearsome Uruk-hai are near. This proved invaluable countless times throughout Baggins' epic quest into the heart of Mordor to cast the One Ring into the fires of Mt. Doom. This replica mirrors the prop used in The Lord of the Rings™ trilogy down to the last detail, including the flowing Sindarin inscription on the blade and guard. The ancient text translates to "Sting™ is my name; I am the spider's bane," referring to the spider Shelob – slain by Frodo™ in the dark pass of Cirith Ungol.

United CUTLERY

UNITEDCUTLERY.COM

As the creator of some of the most widely recognized knives in the industry today, Gil Hibben's knowledge and over 60 years of experience are unprecedented in the world of custom knife making. He is the creator of the popular Rambo™ III bowie and Rambo™ IV machete, each specially made for the Sylvester Stallone films. He has also produced one-of-a-kind blades for personalities, like John Wayne, Elvis Presley, Steve McQueen.

Gil produced knives for our servicemen to use in Vietnam, and his first-hand experience as an Alaskan hunting guide, throwing knife expert, and sixth-degree black belt in Kenpo Karate have contributed to his creating some of the most popular knives of the 20th Century. Mr. Hibben was inducted into the Knife Throwers Hall of Fame in October 2003 for his many contributions to throwing knife designs. United® Cutlery is proud to offer production knives based on Gil's custom designs. This top-selling brand consists of throwing knives, hunting knives, personal protection knives, and the most collectible line of production fantasy available today.

Gil Hibben™ Sidewinder

Knifemaker extraordinaire Gil Hibben continues to design exceptional knives made for hard everyday use. His Sidewinder is a smaller fixed-blade designed to fit comfortably on your side in its premium leather belt sheath. It features a sharp 3 1/2" 7Cr17 stainless steel blade and a rich, black pakkawood handle that fits comfortably in your hand. The full-tang knife isn't just a practical choice of an everyday fixed blade but typical of Hibben knives, it is visually pleasing with brass accents and decorative mosaic pins.
